The amount of remuneration and compensation payable to the Secretary of the Board of Directors, the procedure, sources and order for their calculation shall be determined by a decision of the Board of Directors.

6. Meeting of the Board of Directors

- 6.1. A decision of the Board of Directors may be taken in the form of joint presence (including video- or audio- conference call) or by absentee voting.
- 6.2. The meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held regularly in accordance with the work schedule approved by the meeting of the Board of Directors, but not less than one time every three months. If so required, the Board of Directors shall consider issues that are not included in the work schedule.
- Meeting of the Board of Directors to be held with respect to preparation to and holding of the annual General Shareholders' Meeting shall be held not later than one (1) month upon the occurrence of the time for submission of annual accounting statements in order to consider draft annual reports, the annual balance sheet including profit and loss statement of the Company, distribution of its profit and loss based on the results of the fiscal year, and the report of the external auditor of the Company.
- 6.3. A meeting (absentee voting) of the Board of Directors shall be convened (initiated) by the Chairman of the Board of Directors on his or her own initiative, at the request of a member of the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee, the external auditor of the Company or the individual executive body or collegial executive management body of the Company or at the request of a shareholder (shareholders) holding in aggregate not less than two (2) percent of the Company's voting shares.
- 6.4. The request to convene a meeting (absentee voting) of the Board of Directors shall contain the following information:

- name of the person initiating the meeting or the name of the body or the legal entity making the request;
- if the request for convocation of a meeting is submitted by a shareholder, it shall include the number and category (type) of his or her shares;
- the form of decision-making (by joint presence or by absentee voting);
- the date of the meeting or, in the event of absentee voting, the final date for collecting of written opinions of the members of the Board of Directors on the agenda issues;
- agenda of the meeting (of absentee voting);
- list of information (materials) to be furnished to the members of the Board of Directors for the meeting (absentee voting);
- if the proposals on behalf of a shareholder are signed by his or her authorized representative, the proposal of agenda issues shall be accompanied by a notarized copy of the power of attorney or other evidence of the powers of the representative (minutes of election as a person entitled to represent a shareholder which is a legal entity without a power of attorney).

In addition, the request to convene a meeting (absentee voting) of the Board of Directors may contain the following information:

- time and venue of the meeting (in case of a meeting);
- draft resolutions on the agenda issues; and
- other information at the discretion of the party initiating the convening of the meeting (absentee voting).

6.5. The Chairman of the Board of Directors may not refuse to convene a meeting (initiate absentee voting) except for the cases, where:

- the request to convene a meeting (absentee voting) does not comply with the Company's Charter or these Regulations;
- the initiating person has no right to request the convocation of a meeting (absentee voting) of the Board of Directors.

6.6. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall consider a submitted request for the convocation of a meeting (initiation of absentee voting) of the Board of Directors and send to the initiating person notification of the decision not later than three (3) days from the date when the decision was made.

In the event the Chairman of the Board of Directors satisfies the request for the convocation of a meeting (absentee voting) the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall have the right to change the form of the decision-making by the Board of Directors and add to the agenda of the meeting (absentee voting).

6.7. Meetings of the Board of Directors may not consider issues not specified in the notification of the meeting of the Board of Directors unless it is decided unanimously by all of the members of the Board of Directors present at the meeting but subject to quorum. The Secretary of the Board of Directors shall allow the directors not present on the meeting to vote on introduced issues in writing, or by any other means, including mail, wire, phone, e-mail, or any other communications.

6.8. Notification of the convocation of the meeting of the Board of Directors shall be signed by the Chairmen of the Board of Directors and delivered to each member of the Board of Directors together with the necessary materials not less than fourteen working (14) days prior to the date of the meeting (absentee voting).

If it is required to hold a meeting of the Board of Directors on a tighter schedule in accordance with applicable legislation, the term for delivering the notification with necessary materials shall be reduced.

Such term may also be reduced if it is required to decide urgently on any issues provided that none of the members of the Board of Directors objects.

Notification period about a meeting in accordance with the first paragraph of Clause 6.8 hereof may not be reduced if the agenda includes an issue related to the Company's budget (including its approval, adjustment and results of its performance).

The first (organizational) meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without prior notification on the date of the General Shareholders Meeting which has elected the Board of Directors (provided that the decision on election of the Board of Directors and the voting results thereon were announced at the General Shareholders Meeting at which the voting took place).

Notification of a meeting shall be sent to the members of the Board of Directors in writing or in any other form convenient to them (including mail, telegraph, teletype, telephone, e-mail or other types of communication).

Notification of a meeting shall specify the address to which the members of the Board of Directors may send their written opinions.

Should it become impossible or predicament to hold a meeting of the Board of Directors at the venue or time notified to the members of the Board of Directors, the meeting under the planned agenda may be held at another location or at another time.

All the members of the Board of Directors shall be notified sufficiently in advance of a change of either location or time of the meeting of the Board of Directors so the members of the Board of Directors are able to arrive to the meeting. Notification of such changes shall be sent to the members of the Board of Directors in any form guaranteeing receipt of such notification by a member of the Board of Directors at his or her residential mailing address.

6.9. In the course of making decisions by the Board of Directors the members of the Board of Directors who are present at the meeting shall express their opinion on the agenda issues by voting.

6.10. If a member of the Board of Directors cannot attend a meeting in person and if a meeting is held by absentee voting, the member of the Board of Directors shall express his or her opinion on the issues on the agenda in writing.

If the written opinion of a member of the Board of Directors contains his or her vote on all or a number of issues on the agenda, it shall be counted in determining the quorum and the voting results.

A written opinion shall be submitted by a member of the Board of Directors prior to the meeting of the Board of Directors or, if the meeting is held in the form of absentee voting, by the final date for the collection of written opinions from members of the Board of Directors.

6.11. The Chairman shall announce the written opinion of a member of the Board of Directors who is absent from the meeting prior to the commencement of voting on an agenda issue with respect to which such opinion is submitted.

In the event of absentee voting the Secretary of the Board of Directors shall, on the basis of the written opinions received from the members of the Board of Directors in the form of signatures affixed to questionnaires or other written evidence of expression of will of the members of the Board of Directors (facsimile message, telegram, etc.), draw up the minutes of the absentee voting within three (3) business days of the final date for collecting written opinions from the members of the Board of Directors.

If the received written opinion contains a proposal of a draft resolution materially different from that proposed for voting initially, the Secretary of the Board of Directors shall, prior to the drawing up of the minutes, bring such opinion to the attention of the other members of the Board of Directors and suggest that they express their opinion by voting in writing or in any other form convenient for them (including but not limited to mail, telegraph, teletype, telephone, e-mail or other means of communication).

6.12. When the Board of Directors consider the issues each member of the Board of Directors shall have one vote.

A member of the Board of Directors may not delegate his or her voting right to another person, including another member of the Board of Directors.

In the event of a tie vote the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall have the deciding vote.

6.13. The Secretary of the Board of Directors shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors.

The minutes of a meeting (absentee voting) of the Board of Directors shall be drawn up within three (3) business days of the date of the meeting (final day for the collecting of written opinions in the event of absentee voting).

The minutes of a meeting (absentee voting) shall specify:

- venue, date and time or, in the event of absentee voting, the place where the minutes are drawn up and the final date for collecting of written opinions of the members of the Board of Directors;
- persons who were present at the meeting (in case of meeting);
- persons who have submitted written opinions on agenda issues;
- agenda of the meeting;
- issues put to a vote and the voting results thereof; and
- taken decisions.

The minutes of a meeting of the Board of Directors shall be signed by the Chairman of the meeting and by the Secretary of the Board of Directors.

In case of absentee voting, the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors shall be signed by the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Secretary of the Board of Directors.

If the written opinions received from members of the Board of Directors are taken into account in determining the quorum and the voting results, such written opinions shall be attached to the minutes.

6.14. The Company shall keep the minutes of meetings (absentee voting) of the Board of Directors at the location of its executive body in accordance with the procedure and during the periods determined by the federal executive body for the securities market. If such period is not determined, the Company shall keep the minutes of the meetings (absentee voting) of the Board of Directors permanently.

The Company shall provide the members of the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee, the external auditor of the Company and in accordance with stipulated by applicable legislation the shareholders of the Company with access to minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors.

6.15. In the event where a decision is made in accordance with the Charter of the Company by a three-quarters majority or unanimously by all members of the Board of Directors without taking into account the votes of dismissed members of the Board of Directors, persons indicated in the Charter of the Company shall be deemed as dismissed members of the Board of Directors.

7. Remuneration of Members of the Board of Directors and Compensation for Expenses Related to the Performance of Their Functions

7.1. For the period of performance by the members of the Board of Directors of their duties, the Company shall remunerate them and compensate costs connected with the performance by members of the Board of Directors of their functions.

7.2. The Company shall, in order to remunerate members of the Board of Directors, establish a fund for the remuneration of members of the Board of Directors, which is formed by deducting five tenths (0.5) of one percent of the Company's net profits.

The amount of personal remuneration shall be proposed by the Chairman of the Board of Directors depending on the volume and intensity of the work performed by a member of the Board of Directors.

A decision on the amount of personal remuneration of a member of the Board of Directors shall be made at a meeting of the Board of Directors by a simple majority of votes of the members of the Board of Directors who are present at the meeting. The member of the Board of Directors whose remuneration is put to vote shall not participate in the voting.

Those members of the Board of Directors who are governmental officials shall act without compensation.

The amount of remuneration to be paid to the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall exceed by at least 30 per cent the amount of remuneration to any member of the Board of Directors, established in accordance with this Section 7.2.

The members of the Board of Directors shall be insured at the expense of the Company against accidents.

- 7.3. The Company shall, in order to remunerate members of the Board of Directors for their activity as committee members, establish a fund for the remuneration of members of committees of the Board of Directors, which is formed by deducting seven-hundredths (0.07) percent of the Company's net profits.

A decision on the amount of personal remuneration of members of committees of the Board of Directors shall be suggested by the Chairman based on volume and intensity of tasks performed by the committees' members in an order of remuneration set in the Company.

Decision on amount of personal remuneration of member of committees of the Board of Directors is taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors by a simple majority of votes of the members of the Board of Directors who are present at the meeting. The member of committee of the Board of Directors whose remuneration is put to vote shall not participate in the voting.

- 7.4. Members of the Board of Directors may not receive remuneration or compensation for expenses for the performance of their duties in any kind or manner for making decisions by the Board of Directors or other bodies of the Company, or also for the exercise of their rights and performance of their duties as members of the Board of Directors, other than remuneration and compensation for expenses received in accordance with these Regulations or by the decision of the General Shareholders Meeting.

8. Proceedings for Approval and Introduction of Amendments and Additions to the Regulations

- 8.1. These Regulations shall be approved by the General Shareholders Meeting by a majority of votes of the shareholders holding the voting shares of the Company and participating in the meeting.
- 8.2. The Regulations may be amended by the General Shareholders Meeting by a majority of votes of the shareholders holding the voting shares of the Company and participating in the meeting.
- 8.3. If, as a result of a change in the legislation of the Russian Federation or the Charter of the Company, certain provisions of these Regulations will not be in compliance with such changes, such provisions shall cease to be in force and before amendments to these Regulations are made the members of the Board of Directors shall act in accordance with effective legal acts of the Russian Federation and the Company's Charter.
